Sack begins term as NCEES Southern Zone vice president

Theodore Sack, P.L.S., recently received his commission as NCEES Southern Zone vice president at the 90th NCEES annual meeting, held August 24–27 in Providence, Rhode Island. He was elected to the position by delegates from the Southern Zone during their interim meeting in April 2011. As vice president, Sack will serve on the NCEES board of directors and as the zone's administrative officer through 2013.

A resident of Sand Springs, Oklahoma, Sack has been a member of the Oklahoma State Board of Licensure for Professional Engineers since 1997. He has previously served as board chair and as NCEES Southern Zone assistant vice president.

Sack has been a licensed professional land surveyor in Oklahoma since 1981. He is an associate with the family-owned engineering and land surveying firm Sack and Associates, Inc., based in Tulsa. Sack is a member and past president of the Oklahoma Society of Land Surveyors.

ABOUT NCEES

NCEES is a national nonprofit organization composed of engineering and surveying licensing boards representing all U.S. states, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. An accredited standards developer with the American National Standards Institute, NCEES develops, scores, and administers the examinations used for engineering and surveying licensure throughout the United States. NCEES also provides services facilitating professional mobility for licensed engineers and surveyors. Its headquarters is located in Clemson, S.C.
