Widmer elected treasurer of NCEES

NCEES delegates elected David Widmer, P.L.S., treasurer for the 2011–13 term at the organization's 90th annual meeting, held August 24–27 in Providence, Rhode Island.

A resident of Rochester, Pennsylvania, Widmer was a member of the Pennsylvania State Registration Board for Professional Engineers, Land Surveyors, and Geologists from 1991 to June 2011. He previously served as NCEES Northeast Zone vice president and as the zone's secretary-treasurer.

Widmer has been a licensed professional surveyor in Pennsylvania for over 25 years. He is the president of consulting firm Widmer Engineering Inc., based in Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of Geneva College in Beaver Falls.

Widmer is a member of the Southwestern Pennsylvania Corporation Loan Advisory Committee. He has previously served as Southwest Chapter director and state director of the Pennsylvania Society of Land Surveyors, director of the Beaver County Chapter of the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers, and president of the Western Chapter of the American Council of Engineering Companies of Pennsylvania. He is also a former member of the board of directors for the Beaver County Association for the Blind and the advisory board for the Beaver County Salvation Army.

ABOUT NCEES

NCEES is a national nonprofit organization composed of engineering and surveying licensing boards representing all U.S. states, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. An accredited standards developer with the American National Standards Institute, NCEES develops, scores, and administers the examinations used for engineering and surveying licensure throughout the United States. NCEES also provides services facilitating professional mobility for licensed engineers and surveyors. Its headquarters is located in Clemson, S.C.
