

Save the Date—New Board Members and Executives/Administrators Orientation

Join us in Washington, D.C., from February 12–14, 2020, for an orientation for new design profession licensing board members and executives/administrators jointly hosted by:

Council for Interior Design Qualification—CIDQ

Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards—CLARB

National Council of Architectural Registration Boards—NCARB

National Council of Examiners for Engineering and Surveying—NCEES

WHAT

An in-person orientation training event for board members and executives/administrators who are new to serving on boards that regulate architects, engineers, interior designers, landscape architects, and surveyors.

WHY

Provide attendees with tools and resources to be effective, share best practices, learn how the four national associations support member boards, and discuss today's challenging regulatory environment and the role licensing boards can play to help educate policymakers and the public about their work to protect public health, safety, and welfare.

WHEN

February 12–14, 2020

WHERE

NCARB office

1401 H ST NW

Washington, D.C. 20005

In the coming months, you'll receive more details regarding the orientation's agenda, speakers, and registration information. Questions? Contact joint-orientation@ncarb.org.
